A Dozen Reasons Why Parents Have Chosen Resurrection Catholic School & Preschool

1. We chose RCS for the programs offered to meet the varying needs of our children. Both have found a loving, nurturing environment where they've been challenged and supported.
2. We chose RCS because it embodies the spiritual and moral foundation in which we want our children to learn and grow. It was very hard to change schools, but it has been one of the best decisions we have made for our family.
3. We chose RCS because it provides a great education, in a safe and caring environment.
4. We chose RCS because of all it had to offer our children, including high academic standards and plenty of options for extracurricular activities.
5. We were happy to find a school that provided us with the option of advanced courses and a talented/gifted program. Our needs required us to find a school willing to challenge our children and provide them with a full and enriched curriculum. The sense of community within the school is reinforced in the Parish. It was like joining a huge, yet very close-knit family.
6. I chose RCS, and continue to choose RCS, because of the great academics. My daughters are encouraged to be independent thinkers and are continuously challenged to develop the skills to be lifelong learners.
7. Like many Catholic Schools, RCS offers a faith-based, quality education. I felt that besides that RCS had a healthy enrollment and a caring, nurturing staff.
8. I chose RCS for my children in the beginning because I wanted them to have a religious based education. I have stayed with RCS because of the feeling of being a part of a family. There is a sense of caring and community I felt when I walked in the door for the first time and every day since. I always know that I can count on my RCS family!
9. From the moment I toured RCS, I have felt the embrace of a faith-filled community that cares about every aspect of a student and their family, while providing a high standard of academics.
10. My husband and I chose Resurrection Catholic School because in addition to the Catholic values and dedicated teachers we felt RCS offered ethnic diversity for our children.
11. The additional programs and varied extra-curricular activities offered is what drew us to RCS. The incredible teachers and close family atmosphere is why we love RCS.
12. We chose RCS for the high level of education provided and the many options available to our children. There has always been a very close bond between the staff and families, making us feel welcome from day one. I couldn't imagine my kids anywhere else!
